Arabian Monarch Gets Wheel Chair From F.D.R.

Aboard Presidential Cruiser in the Mediterranean, Feb. 18 (AP) (Delayed)—Probably no Chief of State ever before presented a wheel chair to another Chief of State. But that was President Roosevelt's gift to King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia.

Reporters who joined the Chief Executive today to return home with him, learned the Arabian Monarch, who finds it somewhat difficult to get around because he was wounded nine times in battle in his younger years, saw Mr. Roosevelt in a wheel chair and admired it. He said one of the chairs would save him many steps at home.

Whether it was a hint or not, Mr. Roosevelt dug up a spare and gave it with proper flourishes to the massive, black-bearded ruler.

Move Asked to Speed Drafting of Nurses

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—Confronted with figures showing almost 600,000 army and navy personnel in hospitals, the House leadership moved today to expedite legislation to draft nurses to care for them.

Tentative plans call for final House action Friday on a measure to subject to induction all unmarried nurses not under 20 or over 44 years of age.

Already approved by the Military Committee, the legislation won Rules Committee sanction after the army disclosed that battle casualties are filling hospitals at a rate of 1,600 daily and are "steadily mounting."

In addition, army officials said in a report in the rules body, some 6,500 men become ill or suffer non-battle injuries every day.

Poland Is Bitter

London, Feb. 28 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's renewed promise to compensate Poland for land transferred to Soviet Russia with territory in the west and north was received bitterly today by the Polish government in exile.

From quarters close to the regime of Premier Tomasz Arciszewski, "added nothing to what has been said at Yalta. The whole thing is a step to Sovietize Poland," one said. The semi-official Polish point of view. We are to where we were in 1939 when the declaration that Church-

Business Girls See Demonstration Of Handie-Talkie at Meeting

The regular weekly meeting of the Business and Professional Girls' Club was held Wednesday evening at the Y.W.C.A. Following a brief business meeting, Lt. Jerome L. Kessler and Sgt. Keith Sattler of the army spoke of the need of workers at the R.C.A. plant in Saugerties. They also gave a short demonstration of the "handie-talkie," of which the radio tubes are manufactured at Saugerties.

Mrs. Milton Wagenfroh gave an interesting talk on charm which she described as the art of serving beautifully. She explained this by saying that the standard for charm had changed from that of wearing beautiful clothes to that of good grooming coupled with acts of service for the good of others today. She urged the members of her audience to "be themselves," developing their own individualities. This she suggested to be followed through in choosing ensembles and adopting styles that are becoming rather than in the passing fad.

At the close of the meeting the interest groups were conducted. Next week there will be a summer meeting as usual with the special open meeting at 8:15 p. m. in which the public has been invited to hear Dr. Louis Kress of the State Department of Health, who will speak on cancer control.

THE MAN WHO CHANGED HIS MIND AT THE LAST MINUTE

Everyone will agree that a man should be able to make up his mind before all the wedding plans have been completed and that no girl deserves the treatment described in this letter: "My daughter was engaged to a navy officer for over a year and they were to have been married last month. The date had been set, the wedding dress bought and the bridesmaids put to the expense of their dresses. Out of the blue he wrote her and broke off everything with no further explanation than that he had decided marriage was not for him and he asked to have his ring returned. Considering all the expense everyone has been put to and the embarrassment caused my daughter, would you say that we might keep his ring?"

To this I am sorry to have to say, I don't think she could keep his ring—not even as part payment of the expenses incurred. In her place, there is nothing to do but put the wedding clothes away which cannot be returned, in the hope that they may be put to a happier use than could ever have been possible with him.

Showing Sympathy for Bereaved Parents

Dear Mrs. Post: What can we do to show our profound sympathy for parents who have lost their only son overseas? We have not seen these people for eight or nine years, but think of them as "old friends." We want to do the utmost.

Answer: The only thing you can do is write a short note sincerely saying how sorry you are or possibly send a few flowers to the mother. Later on go to see her.

A Chaplain May Dance

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it proper for a chaplain at a young people's dance to dance with young people?

Answer: It depends a great deal upon how old the chaplain is and still more, upon how well she dances. If she is neither young nor especially gifted, she should dance very briefly, if at all.

Flowers or Gift for War Wife's Wedding Anniversary

Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be kind or might it just be the opposite to send a young friend flowers on her wedding anniversary? Her husband is overseas in the army and in combat we believe.

Answer: A small memory gift of some sort would be better. I think under the circumstances, flowers might have a tragic significance.

Are you trying to make plans to be married to a man in the service? If you are, you'll be glad to know that you can get a reprint of Mrs. Post's recent article, "Furlough Wedding Details." Be sure to send a three-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Mrs. Post, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, Post Office Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. ## MODENA

Staff Sgt. Wilfred Doolittle, now stationed at Denver, Colo., was recently interviewed by a Denver, Colo., newspaper on the subject of occupation of internecine in a neutral country. Quoting Sergeant Doolittle, "Ninety per cent of the men now in enemy hands in Europe are studying, through the United States Armed Forces Institute—known as U.S.A.F.I. Next to food parcels and letters from home, I'd say the study courses are the most eagerly sought and looked for items with the prisoners of war, or internees, in connection with my job in Geneva, Switzerland. I saw the results of the U.S.A.F.I. courses, and not only are they of great morale value, but the proficiency of the men's work is truly amazing."

Sergeant Doolittle was one of three American soldiers working in the Y.M.C.A. at Geneva during his period of internment. His job was the forwarding of supplies and books to prisoners of war in Germany; handling the vast amount of correspondence in connection with their studies, and assisting them in securing credit for the schooling they had completed during their stay in the enemy camps. "At Geneva," continued Doolittle, "our men are actually attending the university with regular professors, schedules and everything just as they would if they were in the United States. These classes are perhaps the most cosmopolitan in the world, with, perhaps, a G.I. from Indiana sitting next to a senorita from Spain, or any other country in the world."

Sergeant Doolittle, operating with the Eighth Air Force, has been awarded the Oak Leaf Cluster, the Presidential Citation, the Purple Heart, the European Theatre Operative ribbon. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doolittle of Modena.

He Upheld Livingstone
Servais de Roux, who proved David Livingstone was the true discoverer of Victoria Falls, is dead. The Rhodesian pioneer spent years examining the question of whether Karel Trichardt or some other Voortrekker might have reached the famed falls before Livingstone. In conclusion, he said he had no hesitation in stating there were no grounds to believe anyone but Livingstone had been the first European on the scene. He also proved Mrs. George Westbeech and Mrs. W. C. Francis were the first white women to see the falls, Salisbury reports.

Mocking Bird Defended By Audubon Official

Miami, Fla., March 1 (AP)—The south's mocking bird is no "plagiarist."

You can take that straight from National Audubon Official Bert Hartwell.

He should know. His accuracy in reproducing the songs of 276 birds is rumored to have started treecrop agitation for copyright measures.

"The mocking bird is one of the most highly developed singers and has one of the broadest repertoires," said Hartwell, springing to the defense of the bird whose name indicates him as a second-hand song merchant.

To be sure, the Audubon official admitted, the mocking bird isn't above lifting a few thrills from his feathered neighbors, but he scrambles the lot, interpolates a generous portion of strictly original cadences and waves them into a distinctive song all his own.

"You can't mistake it for the song of any other bird," Hartwell maintained.

Junior Red Cross Of Kingston High To Do Its Share

The opening of the Red Cross war fund drive for 1945 does not apply merely to the senior chapters of the Red Cross. The Junior Red Cross of Kingston High School plans to do its bit in aiding the drive.

While continuing their year round practices of making various implements to aid the veterans in the rehabilitation period, the Junior Red Cross members have been making plans to raise funds for the senior Red Cross to enable it to continue its work of mercy during these troubled years of World War II.

The high school group centers its drive on a school collection to be taken up on a day not yet decided upon. Between the high school and the Myron J. Michael school it is expected that a large fund can be raised as has been done in previous years.

While not completely sponsored by the Junior Red Cross, a variety show will be held on April 6 for the benefit of the Red Cross. The high school group has volunteered to enlist entertainment for this show which will consist of local talent chosen mainly from the high school.

Red Cross Card Party
A card party for the benefit of the Red Cross War Fund will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Ulster Grange Hall, Ulster Park, sponsored by Union Center Women's Auxiliary. Refreshments will be served and a silver collection will be taken. George Villiers of Ulster Park, who has a son, an officer now serving in the South Pacific, will bake his famous Red Cross cake, which will be auctioned. Everybody is welcome to attend.

7 Persons Hurt In Ohio Wreck

'Spirit of St. Louis' Is Derailed at Fairplay

Steubenville, O., March 1 (AP)—Seven persons were injured early today when the Pennsylvania Railroad's eastbound "Spirit of St. Louis" flyer was derailed at Fairplay station, 15 miles west of here.

There were no fatalities, the railroad's Public Relations Office at Pittsburgh reported.

The injured were those trapped when a Pullman car overturned and fell off a trestle just a few feet short of the swollen waters of Cross Creek.

Division State Highway Patrol Headquarters at Cambridge said they were informed via two-way radio from patrolmen on the scene that nine cars of the St. Louis-New York flyer jumped the track after passing through a tunnel.

The wreck tied up traffic on the line, the Pennsylvania's main New York-Chicago-St. Louis route, for several hours, but the railroad said schedules were resumed on a "detour basis."

Railroad officials were unable to determine the cause of the derailment immediately.

Dempsey Apologizes For Omitting Sharkey

Honolulu, March 1 (AP)—Coast Guard Comdr. Jack Dempsey apologized for leaving former Heavyweight Champion Jack Sharkey out of his list of the ten best fighters he ever battled.

"Sharkey belongs in that list, and I just don't know how I happened to fail to mention him," the one-time world heavyweight champ told newsmen yesterday.

Dempsey's list of the ten best was given to Russ Newland of The Associated Press before he left California yesterday on a four to six month tour of Coast Guard bases and ships which may take him as far as India.

Omission of Sharkey's name annoyed Johnny Buckley, manager of Sharkey, who now is his partner in a Boston tavern.

The addition of Sharkey will make the list 11 names, Dempsey failed to scratch any of his previous selections.

Swimming Tests

It is announced that Boy Scouts who want to take first-class swimming tests may do so any afternoon or evening at the Y. M. C. A., free of charge. Also appointments may be made with Lou Schaefer at the "Y" for swimming and life-saving merit badge tests. There will be a guest fee for the latter.

The War Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The air offensive against Germany, which has swollen to unprecedented fury in support of the Allied drives for a knock-out, continued today and Nazi Propaganda Minister Goebbels is chanting that it's "inhuman" and "can hardly be borne," though Hitlerdom won't quit.

Similarly in the war of the Pacific our aerial assault against Japan is intensifying to terrifying proportions as we close in. The German and Japanese capitals—next to London and New York the world's greatest cities—have of necessity become focal points in the attacks.

Tokyo—with its population of 7,000,000 and its flimsily built houses—finally has come under American bombing in a big way. The Japanese government is deeply worried, especially since explosives have fallen close to the royal palace. The Mikado is not only temporal ruler—he is a god.

Berlin—Hitler's once arrogant but now frightened capital, crowded with a wartime population of 3,500,000—is undergoing the fiercest air attacks ever administered to any great city. It was under fire again last night. The fuhrer, lacking the Mikado's fortitude, has fled.

Japan—Which deliberately bombs civilians (as in Nanking) and practices rape, torture and murder—is shocked that we should lay hands on Tokyo. Germany—whose atrocities have made Atlanta look like a benefactor—has branded British and American airmen as the "Huns of the air."

Well, are we right or are we wrong in bombing Tokyo and Berlin? The answer is that despite enemy charges, the Allies are adhering to the Hague convention which forbids the deliberate bombing of civilians. Our bombs are directed at prime military objectives.

However, it's obvious that you can't pour 6,000,000 pounds of bombs, including half a million incendiaries, into a city—as American bombers did in Berlin the first week—without a lot of civilians getting hurt. Stockholm reports that this raid caused between 25,000 and 30,000 casualties. Of course Tokyo is even more vulnerable because its structures are so inflammable.

Both these cities are crammed with military objectives. Berlin not only is Hitler's transportation hub but it's one of his vital war production centers. Tokyo houses many of the nation's greatest war industries.

Naturally, with bombs falling near the Mikado's palace, the question is arising as to what the effect would be on Japan if he were lost. That's a point of vast importance, but we cannot answer. After all, however silly it may seem to us, Hirohito is a god to his people.

The case of Hitler, alias Shickelgruber, is different. The sooner he is dead, the better for humanity. Anyway, he's an active military man.

F.D.R. Says U.S. Must Collaborate

ning April 25, with both major parties having equal representation.

"World peace," he said, "is not a party question—any more than is military victory. x x x the structure of world peace cannot be the work of one man, or one party, or one nation. x x x it cannot be a structure of complete perfection at first."

Discussing at length the Big Three agreement for united action in the political and economic field in liberated areas, the President mentioned the specific agreement regarding Poland's future boundaries as an outstanding example of such joint action.

Assessing the whole Polish question was a potential source of trouble in postwar Europe and the Yalta participants were determined to find a common ground for its solution, the President said: "We did."

The decision to partition Poland he described as a compromise under which the Poles will receive territory in the north and west for what they lost east of the Curzon line. The western boundary, he said, will be permanently fixed in the final peace conference.

"It is well known," he continued, "that the people east of the Curzon line are predominantly White Russian and Ukrainian. And the people west of the line are predominantly Polish. As far back as 1919 the representatives of the Allies agreed that the Curzon line represented a fair boundary between the two peoples."

Mr. Roosevelt said he was convinced the agreement on Poland, under the circumstances, is "the most hopeful agreement possible for a free, independent and prosperous Polish state."

The President emphasized the major Allies are determined to continue to be united so that "the ideal of lasting world peace will become a reality."

Refers to Agreements
Referring to some agreements reached at Yalta as "military secrets," he said the Nazis are learning about some of them already "to their sorrow," and they will learn "more about them tomorrow and the next day—and every day."

The President said the Big Three had agreed on voting procedure in the proposed world security council—a point not settled at Dumbarton Oaks, and added:

"It is not yet possible to announce the terms of that agreement publicly, but it will be in a very short time."

The basis for the agreement, he said, was an American proposal "which after full discussion, was unanimously adopted by the other two nations."

Although France was not represented at the conference, the President said "no one should detract from the recognition there accorded of her role in the future of Europe and the world."

He pointed out that France has been invited to accept a zone of control in Germany, to join as a sponsor of the United Nations conference, that she will have a permanent member of the International Security Council with the other four major powers, and she will be associated in the joint responsibility over liberated areas.

The President began his address in a high vein. After asserting he came back refreshed and inspired despite the long journey, he added:

"The Roosevelt are not, as you may suspect, averse to travel. We thrive on it."

Two Main Purposes
He said their two main purposes at the conference, the first to defeat Germany with the greatest possible speed and the smallest possible loss of Allied lives, and the second to continue to build for lasting peace.

As to the first purpose, he said he was being carried out in great haste. As to the second "a tremendous stride was made."

The President emphasized once again that unconditional surrender does not mean the destruction or enslavement of the German people. He said Nazi leaders have "deliberately withheld that part of the Yalta declaration from the German press and radio."

Unconditional surrender, under the Yalta agreement, he said, means temporary control of Germany by the Big Three and France, the end of Nazism and the Nazi party with all its barbaric laws and institutions, the termination of all militaristic influence in the public, private and cultural life of Nazi war criminals, that is "speedy and just—and severe."

He said it also means the disarmament of Germany including the permanent dismemberment of the German General Staff—along with reparations in kind which Germany will have to make for the damage it has done.

"By compelling reparations in kind—in plants and machinery and rolling stock and raw materials—we shall avoid the mistake made after the last war of demanding reparations in the form of money which Germany could never pay," he said.

He added: "We do not want the German people to starve or to become a burden on the rest of the world."

Vargas Promises Election Date for Brazilian People
Rio De Janeiro, March 1 (AP)—President Getulio Vargas promised the Brazilian people today that he would fix within 90 days the date for the first general election this country has known since 1930.

The promise was embodied in a decree modifying the constitution which he established in 1937 by restoring to the people the right of direct suffrage in the election of the president, governors of states, parliament and state legislative assemblies.

Vargas gave no indication of the probable date of the election, but in recent public utterances he has expressed belief that none should be held until the end of the European war, in which Brazil is taking an active part.

velt's Hyde Park estate, told of their journey.

They saved $25, he said, and left home while their parents were away.

They crossed the Hudson at Newburgh, N. Y., and spent the night in a bus station. Next day, they took another bus to Bayonne, while an 11-state police alarm was spread for their apprehension.

They spent the second night in the Bayonne bus station.

"Bayonne was awful," John said.

Tuesday, they searched the town for a place to stay, found none, and settled down for the night in a bus station—underneath the shrubbery in the Irvington Park, taking turns standing watch.

Next morning, they ate a light breakfast, and counted their money. They had 16 cents left. Not enough. They needed clean clothes, baths. During their three days of freedom they had eaten three meals and a few hamburgers.

They were glad to see the Irvington police, who found them when their presence was reported in the park.

Chicago Man Arrested On Charge of Cruelty

Chicago, March 1 (AP)—Antonio Fradet, 46, appeared in police court yesterday on a charge of cruelty to an animal—a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of from $3 to $200. But before his arraignment he was arrested on a new charge: cruelly killing a dog—a felony, the maximum punishment for which is imprisonment for one to three years and a fine of $1,000.

The new warrant was issued by Felony Judge Charles S. Laughery on complaint of Mrs. Catherine Plum, 77, who lives in a building owned by Fradet. She charged that Fradet on February 9 used a club in beating her 7 weeks old German Shepherd pup, Lassie, and jumping on it until it was dead. She said Fradet then threw the pup's body into the furnace.

Assistant State's Attorney Wilbert F. Crawley said he asked the first charge against Fradet be continued and the case transferred to Felony court for trial on March 7. He said the case may be referred to the grand jury for indictment and trial in Criminal court.

Eighth Army Troops Driven From Positions

Rome, March 1 (AP)—German raiding parties, striking across the Senio river south of the Russian-Lugo road, about 17 miles inland from the Adriatic coast, have driven Eighth Army troops from some of their positions, Allied Headquarters announced today.

Allied forces promptly counter-attacked and took a number of prisoners, but part of the German forces still remain on the east bank of the stream.

Two other strong enemy fighting patrols stabbed across the Senio immediately south of the main Faenza-Bologna highway at night and attacked Eighth Army outposts, but were driven back.

The Bloodstone for Courage:

The Bloodstone is defined as a dark green chalcedony spotted with red inclusions of jasper. An old superstition holds that a piece of green chalcedony lay at the foot of the Cross upon which Christ was crucified. The Savior's blood fell on the stone and produced the red inclusions.

The Aquamarine for Tranquility:

Aquamarine is a beryl and is of the exquisite color of sea water, from whence it derives its name. It is found in very large crystals of even color, weighing many pounds. Gems of rare beauty in unusually large sizes are fashioned.
